

Welcome to Pilton Arts Group Ltd

You have chosen to join one of the oldest art groups in North Devon (ask for the free booklet of its history) and we should like you to know a few things about us so that you can make the most of your membership right from the start.

We are open on Mondays, Wednesdays and Thursdays from 10 am to 12.30 pm when you can just drop in to either of the studios and work on your own project. Access, if no key holder is present, is by a code which will be made available to you.

Studio 1 is known as the Oil Room and is equipped with chairs, tables and easels, shelving and racks in which to leave unfinished art work and materials. By the telephone are the names and photos of the Committee so that you can make yourself known to them, also a contact list of members.

Studio 2 is for less messy forms of painting: watercolours, drawing, etc. This room has a comprehensive library on most aspects of art for you to borrow* or browse, a place for washing brushes and water jars and a necessarium. There are also some art materials for general use and the facilities for making tea and coffee

From time to time, we have qualified tutors on various media, days out painting or sketching, a post 'Christmas Lunch', critique evenings and exhibitions, all details of which are notified by newsletters, e.mail and social media.

A 10% discount is a perk we enjoy on production of the membership card when purchasing materials from The Blue Gallery, Joy Street, Barnstaple and Frame Warehouse and Picture Gallery, 7 High Street, Barnstaple.

You will find that we are a friendly lot and we want you to enjoy your membership and to tell us if we could be doing more to improve your enjoyment even more.

There is a register for borrowing and returning books which require the signature of a Committee Member.*

 There is a small charge of £2 per half day to help cover the costs of ad lib tea and coffee, heating and lighting.*
